Demian Szyld, MD, EdM

Demian Szyld appointed to SSH Board of Directors

In recognition of sustained and significant service to Society for Simulation in Healthcare. (www.SSiH.org) Dr. Demian Szyld was appointed to the Board of Directors for a three-year term. Demian continues to be active in the Affiliations Subcommittee, the External and Strategic Relations Committee, and the Accreditation Program. Along with NYSIM Nursing Director, Grace Ng, he chairs the new Formal Training (Fellowship, Masters, and Certificates Affinity Group). SSH is the largest simulation-based education and training society with more than 3000 members and sponsors an annual interprofessional meeting, the International Meeting on Simulation in Healthcare.

Meet a Simulation Facilitator: Chris Chung, RN

Chris graduated in 2015 from New Jersey City University with an accelerated B.S. in Nursing. His first B.S. was in Engineering Physics with a minor in Philosophy from Fordham University. Chris originally joined the NYSIM team as a full time Simulation Facilitator in June 2012 and continued with us per session during his nursing program. He is excited about starting his career as a Registered Nurse, particularly in the fields of Palliative Care and Psychiatric Nursing.

When asked "Why did you want to become a simulation facilitator" he answered "My first career was in the nonprofit sector, specifically in the field of Immigrants' Rights. I was preparing to transition to a new career in the Health Sciences when I heard about this opportunity to work with NYSIM as a Simulation Facilitator. NYSIM continues to be an amazing resource for my personal and professional development!"

One fun fact about Chris: When Chris is not at NYSIM, he is teaching poongmul-nori (Korean percussion) to LGBTQ Asian Pacific Islanders and their allies. These drummers can be found marching/performing at various events throughout the city, including the annual NYC Pride Parade.
